Children in Need

Thank you to all those families who joined us in raising money for this Year's Children in Need event. Overall the school raised a fantastic £179.00

New Headteachers Take Control

As part of the Children in Need Day events, we asked the children to enter a competition to be the headteacher of the school for a day.

Having gone through all the entries, we could not split the final two, so on Friday 23rd the school had two new headteachers; Miss Chessum and Miss Perpeliu

As well as leading our Achievement Service, they also carried out monitoring across the school, wrote thank you letters to the Village Fayre Committee, read to the younger children and made sure behaviour was excellent at break times and at lunch.

They were a fantastic leadership pair and apart from insisting that all the teachers wore a red nose and told a joke in their lessons they took the role very seriously.

Value of the Term

Respect

After Jesus had washed the disciples feet he told them "I have set you an example, as I have done for you, you must do for others, no master is greater than any servant, no man is any greater than any other".

Winter Clothing

With the cold spell starting this week I wanted to remind parents to send their children in to school with coats, hats and gloves please. Unless it was exceptionally cold we will send them out at lunchtime and playtime so they need to wrap up warm.

Please can we add names to all these items too? We have a large selection of lost gloves, hats and even coats in our lost property. None of which have names in.

Thank You

I wanted to thank all those parents who have helped their children take part in the on-going reading challenge in Miss Holland and Miss Neagle's classes. We have had so many children reading at home every day over the last few weeks. In Miss Hollands class 96% read every day this week. It will make such a big difference to their development in all areas of learning. As parents ourselves, we do appreciate it takes time and effort to encourage this to be done every day at home, so thank you all again.
